BURT D. CADY

Newly Elected Chairman of the St. Clair County Board of Supervisors
At the special meeting of the St. Clair county Board of Supervisors held at the county capital Tuesday a new chairman was elected to that position made vacant by the retirement of Thos. Wellman. Two candidates were nominated, Burt D. Cady of Port Huron and N. B. Herbert of Yale. The vote cast gave the former 26 and the latter 18.

Regarding the new buildings at the county farm, a resolution was adopted to the effect that the insurance money be turned into the building fund and if the bond issue carries, $49,100 will be available for the new county home. The building committee was also instructed to have the plans prepared, let the contract and supervise the work, providing, of course, the voters of the county passed favorably on the proposition. This action was taken so that no time would be lost in getting at the work.

Social Doings.

Members of the Delta Lambda Club held a social and literary meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. V. A. Lacy, with Rada Rapley and Florence Pierce as assistant entertainers. Dr. Hunter's Bible Class held its monthly business and social meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace on Wednesday evening. Eighteen members responded to roll call and after the business routine, a pleasant social time was thoroughly enjoyed followed by refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Parmelee entertained a company of guests at dinner last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Will Ruh entertained at dinner on Friday evening last at the home of the former.

Semi-Annual Meeting

The semi-annual meeting of the St. Clair county association, O. E. S. held in Masonic hall, north Port Huron, on Tuesday of this week, was a rousing success, both in numbers, interest and entertainment.

The day dawned brightly with no hint of the blizzard raging the two days previous, and no doubt several points were scored on the weather.

The afternoon meeting was opened by the president of the association, Mrs. Berenice Fuller of Yale. Some of the guests were Worthy Grand Matron Mrs. Maxson, of Leslie, Grand conductress, Miss Minnie G. Kenyon, of Marine City; the president of the county association, several worthy matrons and patrons of Detroit and Mt. Clemens chapters and delegations from the seven chapters of St. Clair county to the number of nearly 200. After the business session a line program was rendered of music and readings, much enjoyed by the guests of Mystic chapter.

At five thirty a feast of good things for the inner man was served in the dining hall, which was tastefully decorated with emblematic colors of the O. E. S.

At the evening service, the exemplification of the initiatory work was performed upon four candidates by officers chosen from the different chapters of the county, followed by a talk from the Grand Worthy Matron.

During the evening Mrs. Maxson was presented with a cut glass dish and some beautiful flowers, and the county president, Mrs. Berenice Fuller, of Yale, was given a massive bouquet of roses from her home chapter, the presentation being made by Worthy Patron J. E. Beavis.

Many out of town guests were entertained over night at the homes in North Port Huron, and all went their various ways feeling that it was good to have been there.

Members of Yale Chapter attending the county meeting were Mesdames Fuller, Clyne, Drouyor, Beecher, Simmons, Fead, Vincent, Menzies, Herbert, Shaw, Howell, Field, Rounds, the Misses McDonald and McKenzie and Messrs. Beavis and Rosenthal.

Sam Bettes In Oregon.

The following article regarding our own Sam Bettes is clipped from the Daily Capital Journal, Salem, Oregon, of February 25:—

A great revival is on at the Salem Mission, Center and Commercial. Sam Bettes, the cowboy preacher, is certainly proving a great attraction. He preaches the old time gospel with the old time fearlessness and power. "Many are being saved," says Dr. McIntire. "He is a greater preacher than Billie Sunday or Gipsie Smith. Yet how many in Salem have not heard him. Every man, woman and child in Salem ought to hear him." The Salem mission is growing wonderfully.
